[Help us keep this current]

We tried to include as many food resources across Clay County as we possibly could, and to make sure every day, time, and address in this guide was accurate as of August 2026.

Schedules shift. New programs open and others close. If you run a distribution that isn't listed here, or you find something out of date, we want to know about it.

REACH OUT

Tell us the organization, the address, the days and hours, and a good phone number. We will verify it and add it to the next edition.
